

Fact Sheet

ENGINEERING

Since commencing business in 1994 Powercore International Ltd has become an invaluable engineering and technical resource to business partners, maintenance, disaster recovery and rental companies.

Being in the business of sourcing and delivering first class technical products from manufacturers like IBM, Hewlett Packard and Sun Microsystems has meant that Powercore has developed outstanding engineering competency.

Due to continued and growing demand, Powercore now makes these capabilities available to all its customers.

Consulting

- On-site or off-site system performance checking and tuning.
- Infrastructure planning and project management.
- Technical auditing.

Logistics

- Cleaning, preparation and packaging of equipment.
- Arrangement of professional transportation.
- Storage of equipment in a controlled and secure environment.

Technical

- On-site installations
- Processor, memory and feature reworks.
- Refurbishment and reengineering of second user equipment.
- Diagnosis and resolution of problems including configuration.
- Bench testing and running of diagnostic sets.

Associated Services

Parts

- Full parts sourcing service.
- Comprehensive parts and equipment inventory.

Rentals

- Short, medium and long term rental of complete machines, peripherals and spare parts.

Training

- High quality technical training courses for field and in house technicians and engineers.

Powercore International Ltd
 Units 4 & 5, The Griffin Centre
 Staines Road, Bedfont
 Middlesex TW14 0HS

T: 44 (0) 20 8831 9339 F: 44 (0) 20 8831 9340
 E: enquiries@powercore.co.uk www.powercore.co.uk