SALES SERVICES

Powercore provides an outstanding technical sales service to the trade in the UNIX marketplace.

Our IBM, HP and Sun sales teams are utterly committed to ensuring our customers receive the best possible technical solution at a realistic price.

Powercore's experience of the multi-user environment means we can supply IBM, HP, Sun Microsystems and Fujitsu Primepower hardware to a wide range of customers, including business partners, brokers, software houses, maintenance and disaster recovery companies.

HOW WE CAN HELP YOU

- Standard and custom configured machines
- Spare parts for maintenance systems
- Upgrades of memory/disks/CPUs
- Hardware in constraint or not being marketed

You can speak to any of our technical sales account managers who will be very happy to provide a tailored solution that suits your exact needs.
